

IT'S CHURCH BANNER TIME!!! NEW 'BANNER SERIES'!!!

EASTER IS COMING! STILL TIME TO MAKE THIS EASY STAINED GLASS BANNER!

Diane/Queen of Stained Glass

It sure gets a lot more quiet after the holidays. Very few quilt shows so I have time to design. I admit I had a lazy December. I just love to decorate, cook and be able to relax with family and friends. We had the best Christmas ever. I decided it was time for more memories instead of more stuff so we placed a $10 limit on gifts and had one rule...be creative. Our dear daughter-in-law (seems more like a daughter so I hate the 'in-law' part) crocheted us each a fabulous winter scarf. Our son and his wonderful girlfriend gave us a framed picture of themselves. I made little quilts for them all to put up in their offices. It was so fun and so relaxing! My husband, Lowell, turned bowls for us gals on his lathe. I have also been baking all of our bread, buns, and rolls...with the help of my bread machine. I just put it on dough cycle and shape all the bread myself and bake it in the oven. I am also trying new recipes. I told Lowell, that we need to hang onto what we eat in the form of fat so we are doing our fair share of 'saving'. Does that count? ha ha
Keep on quilting! Diane

NEW PATTERN!

I am launching a new 'Banner Series'. It took quite a bit of noodling to figure out how to make this happen so that ANYONE with ANY skill level can make them ANY size. They are banners, not quilts. Colorful fabric pieces are fused onto heavy black fabric. The pattern is printed on transparency film so you can place it on an overhead projector and make it any size you need. They are fast to make since you use an Ultrahold fusible so pieces are not stitched down.

GLORY IN THE CROSS

Pattern: $12.50 and includes...

- Full color cover
- Transparency of artwork
- Placement Guide
- Instructions
- Hints & Education on how to make a banner

The 'GLORY IN THE CROSS' banner has 3-D stamens made out of cording. I teach you an easy, tidy way to attach them to the blooms.

MANY MORE BANNERS TO COME IN THE NEAR FUTURE!

It's important to make banners....

- **Enhance your worship with art!
- **Use your talent to praise God!
- **Beautify your place of worship!

Why not have a banner party? Some can trace, some can cut, some can fuse, and some can serve you goodies while you work. :)
